(a) The image to be filled. The target region is shown in green.

(b) The naively computed gradient magnitude.

(c) The gradient magnitude of the image with the slightly expanded hole.

Figure 1: The erroneous gradient problem.